

CANCER RESOURCES

- American Cancer Society \(ACS\) - A nationwide, community-based organization with chartered divisions in all states. ACS focuses on research & education and provides some patient/community services. Toll-free number is 800-ACS-2345.
- American Brain Tumor Association \(ABTA\) - Toll-free line is 800-886-2282.
- American Foundation for Urologic Disease - Provides information and support groups for people with prostate cancer and their families, and information on other urologic disorders. Toll-free phone line is 800-828-7866.
- American Institute for Cancer Research \(AICR\) – Nat'l organization focusing the nutrition & cancer interrelationship. Toll-free line is 800-843-8114.
- American Society of Clinical Oncology - Organization of over 10,000 cancer professionals worldwide. Offers scientific and educational programs and other initiatives intended to foster the exchange of information about cancer.
- Cancer Care, Inc. - National organization helping cancer patients & their families. Provide support groups, educational programs, workshops, teleconferences and one-to-one counseling,. Toll-free line is 1-800-813-HOPE
- CancerNet/Physician's Data Query\(PDQ\) – Info on cancer treatment, supportive care, screening, prevention, & clinical trials. Access to CANCERLIT containing over 1.4M citations & abstracts from 4000+ different sources, incl. biomedical journals, proceedings, book reports, & doctoral theses.
- Candlelighters Childhood Cancer Foundation - Provides help to children with cancer and their families. Offers a network of peer-support groups for parents, a "Youth Newsletter", a bibliography of cancer related materials, an Ombudsman Program on insurance concerns, a long-term survivor's network, and bereavement counseling. Toll-free phone line is 800-366-2223.
- C/Net – Commercial software need to efficiently manage cancer registry data and meet the standards of accrediting agencies for cancer data management systems.

- NCCDPHP Cancer Prevention & Control Program - Part of the CDC, the Division of Cancer Prevention & Control (DCPC), works with national cancer organizations, state health agencies, & other key groups to develop, implement, & promote effective strategies to prevent & control cancer.
- Children's Hospice International - A membership group working to improve hospice care for children. Phone line is 800-242-4453.
- Colorectal Cancer Network - Survivors & Caregivers of Colorectal Cancer.
- Cure For Lymphoma Foundation \(CLF\) - Raises money for lymphoma medical research, and provides support & education for lymphoma patients & families.
- Encore \(YWCA of the USA - Office of Women's Health Initiative\) - For women over the age of 50 that are in need of information related to early cancer detection information, breast & cervical cancer screening, or support services.
- Exceptional Cancer Patients, Inc. - ECaP offers programs and services to cancer patients, people with terminal illness, and health professionals.
- Genetics Education and Counseling Program
- Genetics and Cytogenetics in Oncology and Hematology
- Gilda Radner Ovarian Cancer Familial Registry - Collects data on the link between heredity & ovarian cancer. Toll-free number is 800-682-7426.
- Gynecologic Cancer Foundation
- Healing Odyssey – Non-profit organization providing recovery & cancer support programs for cancer survivors. Programs offer the practical tools, skills-building and support needed to cope effectively with the life-altering effects of a cancer diagnosis and treatment because reconstructing a life that has been affected by cancer can be confusing, overwhelming & lonely.
 - Hospice Link – Non-Profit providing members of the public and health care professionals with educational information about the many facets of caring for the dying and bereaved. Toll-free number is: 800.331.1620
 - International Myeloma Foundation - IMF provides up-to-date information and services for the treatment and management of multiple myeloma. Toll-free line is 800-452-2873.
 - Journal of the National Cancer Institute
- Leukemia Society of America \(LSA\) - LSA is a national agency fighting leukemia and its related diseases (all lymphomas, including Hodgkin's disease, and multiple myeloma). Toll-free line is 800-955-4572.

- Lymphoma Research Foundation of America - Provides grants for lymphoma research and support services for lymphoma patients and their families.
- National Alliance of Breast Cancer Organizations \(NABCO\)- Represents some 375 organizations concerned with breast cancer. Toll-free: 800-719-9154.
- National Cancer Institute's \(NCI\) Cancer Trials Web Site - Provides comprehensive clinical trials information necessary to understand trials, find specific trials, as well as current research findings, news & other resources.
- National Brain Tumor Foundation - Toll-free line is 800-934-CURE.
- National Cervical Cancer Coalition \(NCCC\)
- National Center for Complementary and Alternative Medicine - Disseminates information on complementary and alternative (CAM) medicine to practitioners and the public. Web site provides access to a CAM index consisting of more than 90,000 bibliographic citations from 1966 to 1997.
- Foundation for the Children's Oncology Group - Toll-free: 800-458-6223.
- National Coalition for Cancer Survivorship
- National Lymphedema Network
- National Surgical Adjuvant Breast and Bowel Project \(NSABP\)
- OncoLink - University of Pennsylvania sponsored program providing a multi-media presentation of various cancer related educational resources.
- Oncology Nursing Society
- Orange County Y-Me Bloomers
- Patient Advocate Foundation - Provides cancer patients with help dealing with insurance coverage, payment for managed care treatment, and help understanding managed care. Toll-free phone number is 800-532-5274.
- Ronald McDonald House - A national network of temporary housing facilities for families of children hospitalized with life-threatening illnesses. Many states and major cities have Ronald McDonald Houses.
- Share: Self Help for Women with Breast or Ovarian Cancer – Group of breast & ovarian cancer survivors wanting to help others. Free Bi-lingual (English/Spanish) services include hotlines, support groups, educational programs, & advocacy activities. Toll-free hotline is: 866-891-2392.

- Skin Cancer Foundation - National organization focused on the treatment & prevention of skin cancer. Toll-free phone line is 800-754-6490.
- Society of Gynecologic Oncologists \(SGO\) - SGO works to improve the care of patients with gynecologic cancers, and advance the practice of gynecologic oncology. Toll-free phone line is 800-444-4441.
- Support for People with Oral and Head and Neck Cancer - Founded in 1991, this is a by patient-directed, self-help organization dedicated to the needs of oral, head & neck cancer patients. Services address the broad emotional, physical and humanistic needs of these unique cancers.
- Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation – Founded in 1982, this is one of the world's largest grassroots network of breast cancer survivors & activists, working together to save lives, empower people, ensure quality care for all & energize science to find the cures.
- The United Ostomy Association, Inc. - An association of ostomy chapters dedicated to complete rehabilitation of all "ostomates". Toll-free phone number is 800-808-7866.
- US TOO International, Inc \(US TOO\) - An international network of chapters providing support and services to prostate cancer survivors. Toll free phone number 800-808-7866.
- Vital Options - Founded in 1983, this non-profit provides communications, support, and advocacy to facilitate a global dialogue on cancer.
- Y-ME National Breast Cancer Organization \(Y-ME\) - Y-ME provides support to individuals concerned about, or diagnosed with, breast cancer. A toll-free hotline is staffed by trained counselors and volunteers who have had breast cancer. Phone 800-221-2141 (24-hour hotline).